

Intercultural Communication Training

Made Possible by Funding from:
Northeast Colorado Association of Local Governments and a Training Partnership Between:

OneMorgan County

Uniting Cultures to Celebrate the Mosaic of Our Community

www.onemorgancounty.org

&

SPRING INSTITUTE
FOR INTERCULTURAL LEARNING

Bridging Cultures • Building Futures

www.springinstitute.org

Public Invited * Free Training

Elaine's Place

17590 County Road T.5, Fort Morgan, Colorado

Tuesday, June 29, 2010

9:00 AM to 12:00 Noon—Training

12:00 to 1:00—Lunch (stay for debrief and conversation)

Participants will have the opportunity to order lunch from the menu at their own expense.

Register by June 26th

Contact OneMorgan County's Brenda Zion at

300 Main Street, Fort Morgan, CO

970-867-1243 or bzion@onemorgancounty.org

Why attend?

Good communication is the key to building relationships including personal, professional, civic and business relationships. Communication always presents challenges; but, communicating with acquaintances, colleagues, constituents and customers who are from other cultures and who have limited English proficiency can be even more challenging. Intercultural Communication Training is specifically designed to help participants to overcome intercultural communication barriers. The workshop content focuses on challenges that are related to cultural diversity.

And also... we always have fun!